SATURDAY NIGHT

D                    Bm                    Em                    Em
SEEMS LIKE A DREAM NOW, IT WAS SO LONG AGO
A                    A7                    G                    A
THE MOON BURNT SO BRIGHT AND THE TIME WENT SO SLOW
D                    Bm                    Em                    Em
AND I SWORE THAT I LOVED HER AND GAVE HER A RING
A                    A7                    D                    D7
THE BLUEBIRD WAS HIGH ON THE WING
Em7                D                    G                    D
WHATEVER HAPPENED TO SATURDAY NIGHT
Em7                D                    D                    Am
FINDING A SWEETHEART AND HOLDING HER TIGHT
Em7                D                    G                    D
SHE SAID, "TELL ME, OH TELL ME, WAS I ALL RIGHT?"
Em7                D                    A                    D                    A
WHATEVER HAPPENED TO SATURDAY NIGHT
D                    Bm                    Em                    Em
THE YEARS BROUGHT THE RAILROAD, IT RAN BY MY DOOR
A                    A7                    G                    A
NOW THERE'S BUGS ON THE WINDOWS AND DUST ON THE FLOOR
D                    Bm                    Em                    Em
SHE PASSES THE TIME AT ANOTHER MAN'S SIDE
A                    A7                    D                    D7
AND I PASS THE TIME WITH MY PRIDE
G                G                D                D7                G                G                D                D7
WHAT A TANGLED WEB WE WEAVE BOUND WITH CIRCUMSTANCE
G                G                D                Bm                D                G                D
SOMEONE SHOW ME HOW TO TELL THE DANCER FROM THE DANCE
